IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

MARCH 12, 2009

Mr. FEINGOLD (for himself, Mr. VOINOVICH, Mr. WHITEHOUSE, Mr. COCHRAN, and Mr. CARDIN) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations

A BILL

To establish a Global Service Fellowship Program and to authorize Volunteers for Prosperity, and for other purposes.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3       SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Global Service Fellow-
5       ship Program Act of 2009”.

6       SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7       Congress makes the following findings:

8               (1) Secretary of State Hillary Clinton has said
9       that a critical component of our efforts to bolster
10      national and global security is to “find common

1 ground and common purpose with other peoples”
2 and to invest in social development.

3 (2) Polling data from Terror Free Tomorrow
4 indicates that nearly 60 percent of the people of In-
5 donesia and 75 percent of the people of Pakistan
6 held more favorable views of the United States fol-
7 lowing humanitarian assistance after their tsunami
8 and earthquake tragedies, respectively, and these 9 changes in perception of the United States were sus-
10 tained beyond the initial period of aid and service.

11 (3) International volunteering opportunities are 12 effective means of addressing critical human needs,
13 building bridges across cultures, and promoting mu-
14 tual understanding.

15 (4) Current volunteer programs, such as the 16 Peace Corps, remain an important part of Federal 17 efforts to promote volunteer service and provide re-
18 lated programming.

19 (5) Financial limitations are a common obstacle
20 to volunteering overseas, and awarding financial fel-
21 lowships would reduce barriers for many individuals
22 otherwise unable to afford travel overseas.

23 (6) Allowing flexibility in the duration of volun-
24 teering opportunities would reduce another barrier
25 to volunteering.

1           (7) A global service fellowship program would 2       provide funding and programmatic flexibility for vol-
 3       unteers of all backgrounds, ages, and geographical 4       locations.

5           (8) Eligible organizations willing to participate
 6       in the fellowship program as sponsoring organiza-
 7       tions would be in a better position to recruit volun-
 8       teers for their programs overseas.

9           (9) The United States Agency for International
 10      Development has taken important steps towards en-
 11      couraging this kind of a program through the cre-
 12      ation of Volunteers for Prosperity, which promotes 13      international volunteer service by skilled profes-
 14      sionals from the United States but has never been 15      formally authorized.

16 SEC. 3. VOLUNTEERS FOR PROSPERITY.

17       (a) ESTABLISHMENT.—Consistent with Executive 18      Order 13317 (68 Fed. Reg. 56515), the Administrator of 19      the United States Agency for International Development
 20      shall establish the Office of Volunteers for Prosperity.

 25      Program established under section 4;

2       national volunteering opportunities;

3           (3) promoting the efforts of Global Service Fel-
4       lows as part of the public diplomacy efforts of the 5       United States Government;

6           (4) helping eligible United States sponsoring or-
7       ganizations, as described in section 4(e)(3)(A), to re-
8       cruit and effectively manage skilled United States
9       professionals for volunteer assignments overseas;
10      and

11          (5) providing recognition for volunteers from
